

Friday Night Guest Speaker Series at Fort Robinson SP and Chadron SP

This summer feed your imagination, expand your horizons, and hear tales that will astonish your friends and family! Join the U.S. Forest Service and the National Park Service on Friday evenings from June 5th through August 14th at 7pm for a one hour discussion on topics that will vary from tales of local history to discussions about the world around us. Starting at Fort Robinson State Park, the series will alternate with Chadron State Park each week; please see the schedule below for more details.

Each week either a U.S. Forest Service ranger from Hudson-Meng Education & Research Center, or a National Park Service ranger from Agate Fossil Beds National Monument, will present a topic that is sure to add fun and excitement to your weekend or vacation.

Please join us! This is a free educational program for the public.
